Has your Ministry made improvements over the last 12 months?

Communication

Managers ask for feedback/advice

Managers hold regular one-on-one and team meetings

Managers work with the team to address concerns

Managers keep team informed on key objectives

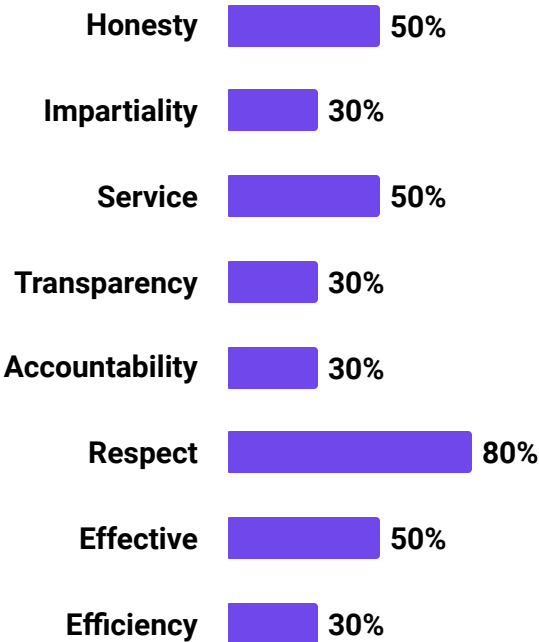

Good communication in the workplace ensures employees have the information they need to perform well, builds a positive work environment, and eliminates inefficiencies. Effective communication should accurately convey information while maintaining or improving human relationships.

Integrity and Trust

Values that align with Managers behaviors

Managers are responsible for their actions

I trust my Manager and am able to talk to them about concerns/issues

Integrity means doing the right thing in the right way; it means adhering to values strongly held. Trust is a belief that someone is honest and credible; trust is earned by being honest, having a positive intent, having strong competencies, and a track record of results.

Performance Management

Managers provide regular constructive feedback

Managers provide sufficient training and development opportunities

When you offer employees training opportunities for personal and professional development, you build a learning culture that benefits the entire organization. Workers can develop a range of skills to achieve their career goals while you benefit from increased employee engagement and productivity.

Do you understand how your performance is measured?

Results from 2022

Performance appraisal is a process for evaluating and documenting how well an employee is carrying out his or her job. It is part of a company's performance management system. Performance appraisals are based on the employee's progress against goals set once a year with his or her manager

Have you received a performance appraisal in the last 12 months?

Engagement

70%

of Employees are Always/Frequently likely to recommend their Agency as a place of work to others

For organizations, it can be good for employee retention and employer branding. Online data shows that people who feel that they belong in a workplace have 34% higher intent to stay at their organization and are 67% more likely to recommend their company as a place for others to work.
